at 0400 on Monday 31 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly sunny, but North Sea haar.

Today:
It will be a dry day with plenty of sunshine, although haar may linger along the east coast. Warm in the west, but cool where it stays misty on the east coast. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
A fine end to the day with plenty sunshine away from the east coast, but haar will push inland later in the evening and overnight, becoming quite extensive by dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
The haar will burn back towards the east coast, but probably more extensive than the last few days. Plenty sunshine again inland, the highest temperatures through western Aberdeenshire and Moray. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining dry, warm and sunny on Wednesday, although haar will affect the east coast. Still plenty of dry and bright weather on Thursday and Friday, but showery rain possible.
